You have access to dozens of Gulf Shores attractions. Whether you're here with family or with a group, there are endless things to do on the Gulf Coast.

Sail Wild Hearts

sailwildhearts.com
27200 Perdido Beach Blvd.
Orange Beach, AL 36561

Wild Hearts is setting sail for gulf adventures this spring and summer season on the Florida and Alabama Gulf Coasts. After a complete refit over the winter months, come board this 53-foot, open-ocean catamaran and sail the turquoise waters of Orange Beach and Gulf Shores, Alabama. Docked at the Perdido Beach Resort, Wild Hearts can comfortably accommodate up to 49 passengers for dolphin cruises and sunset sails, as well as private cruises. Discounts are available on daily cruises for groups of 12 or more.

Florabama

florabama.com
17401 Perdido Key Dr.
Perdido Key, FL 32507

The Flora-Bama Lounge and Package (aka The Flora-Bama or “THE BAMA”), located on Perdido Key in Pensacola, Florida, adjacent the Alabama/Florida state line, is a world famous honky-tonk, oyster bar, beach bar, and Gulf Coast cultural landmark, touted as being America’s “Last Great Roadhouse”. The Flora-Bama takes its name from its location on the Florida-Alabama border line. The Flora-Bama property truly does lie in both Alabama and Florida with the bar sitting right on the line.

Sanroc Cay Marina

sanroccay.com
27267 Perdido Beach Blvd.

Gulf State Park

alapark.com/parks/gulf-state-park
20115 State Highway 135
Gulf Shores, AL 36542

Gulf State Park's two miles of beaches greet you with plenty of white sun-kissed sand, surging surf, seagulls and sea shells, but there is more than sand and surf to sink your toes into. Inside Gulf State Park there is a championship golf course, new beach pavilion, rental cottages, tennis courts, camp sites, hiking trails, and a fishing pier that is 20-foot wide and extends 1,512 feet into the Gulf. This and much more make Gulf State Park the perfect in-state vacation or out-of-state adventure.

Back Country Trail & Eco Tours

backcountrytrail.com

Hugh S. Branyon Backcountry Trail

Orange Beach, AL 36561

Seven trails among six distinct ecosystems make up more than 15 miles of the Hugh S. Branyon Backcountry Trail complex through Orange Beach, Gulf Shores, Alabama and the Gulf State Park. Explore the timeless beauty of the Butterfly Garden, the mystical Freshwater Marshes and the Coastal Hardwood Swamps. Catch a glimpse of a Bobcat on the Twin Bridges or a White Tailed Deer on Gulf Oak Ridge. View an Alligator basking in the sun and be sure to bring your camera to capture the adventure.

Waterville USA

watervilleusa.com

906 Gulf Shores Pkwy

Gulf Shores, AL 36542

Waterville USA, or simply known as Waterville, is a 20-acre water and amusement park located a quarter-mile from the Gulf of Mexico in the city of Gulf Shores, Alabama, on Gulf Shores Parkway.

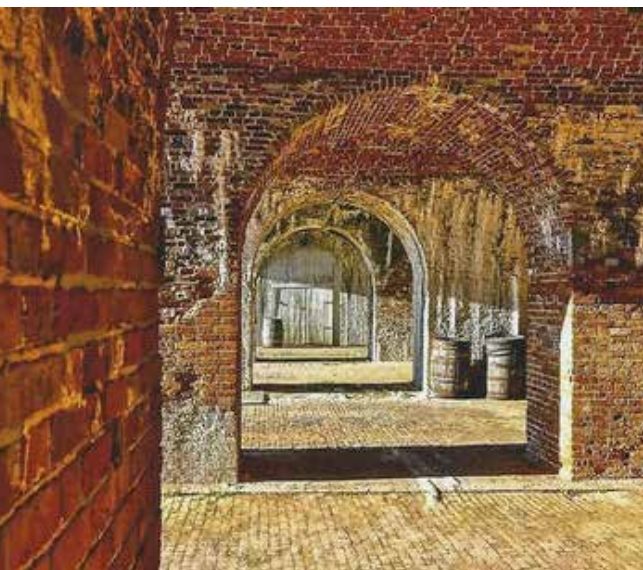

Alabama Gulf Coast Zoo

alabamagulfcoastzoo.com

1204 Gulf Shores Parkway

Gulf Shores, AL 36542

The Alabama Gulf Coast Zoo opened in June 1989 as Zool-and Animal Park. The zoo was founded as a private enterprise by Joey Ward of Gulf Shores. In 1991, the Ward family created the Zoo Foundation, Inc., a non-profit corporation, and donated the 17 acres of prime real estate that makes up the zoo today. Three years later, the Ward family and the Erie Meyer Foundation graciously donated an additional 13 acres, which are still undeveloped.

Fort Morgan

fort-morgan.org

110 State Highway 180

Gulf Shores, AL 36542

Fort Morgan has been standing sentry at the mouth of Mobile bay for 180 years. Built after the war of 1812, the fort was designed to protect the shipping channels of Mobile Bay and the port of Mobile. It was 30 years before the fort had to defend the mouth of the bay. Open daily from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., CST, except for the award winning “Tuesday Twilight Tours” in June and July, when visitors can learn about the life at the Fort with — rifle demonstrations, the responsibilities of the Laundress, and cannon firing!

National Museum of Naval Aviation

navalaviationmuseum.org

1750 Radford Boulevard

Suite 3465

Pensacola, FL 32508

The National Museum of Naval Aviation is one of the largest and most beautiful air and space museums in the world. Share in the excitement of Naval Aviation’s rich history. See 150 beautifully restored aircraft representing Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard Aviation. These historic and one-of-a-kind aircraft are displayed both inside the Museum’s nearly 300,000 square feet of exhibit space and outside on the Museum’s 37-acre grounds.

Watersports on Lake Shelby

alapark.com/Gulf-State-Park-Lake-Shelby

21101 State Highway 135

Gulf Shores, AL 36542

(877) 947-8434

Also part of Gulf Adventure Center, Lake Shelby hosts many water sports for you, your friends, and family to enjoy. The 900 acre lake has a soundtrack provided by tree frogs and cicadas. No reservations are required for their paddleboards and kayaks. On the lake, you’ll witness wildlife like herons, fish, cranes, and osprey.

Bon Secour National Wildlife Refuge
fws.gov/refuge/Bon_Secour
12295 AL-180
Gulf Shores, AL 36542
(251) 540-7720

See the undisturbed coastal barrier habitat along Alabama's coast. Bon Secour means "safe harbor" in French and describes the region's sanctuary for native flora and fauna. Here, you'll find Loggerhead, Green, and Kemp's Ridley sea turtles, along with the endangered Alabama Beach Mouse. The area provides a safe haven for these creatures, as well as an opportunity for scientists and students to study them.

Alabama Coastal Birding Trail
alabamabirdingtrails.com/trails/coastal/gulf-shores-orange-beach

Beginning at the bridge over Perdido Pass, the Gulf Shores-Orange Beach Loop of the Alabama Coasting Birding Trail presents a perfect opportunity to see the stunning avian wildlife that resides along the Gulf Coast. The east section of Alabama point has several varieties of loons and water-fowl. The west section has seabirds and fishing on the rocks. Boggy Point gives you a view of Robinson Island, a roosting site for herons and egrets. The Hugh S. Branyon Backcountry Trail, part of Gulf State Park, has one of the last remaining intact maritime forests along coastal Alabama. Dozens of trails throughout the coast make Alabama birding trails excellent opportunities to see the Gulf Coast's rare wildlife.

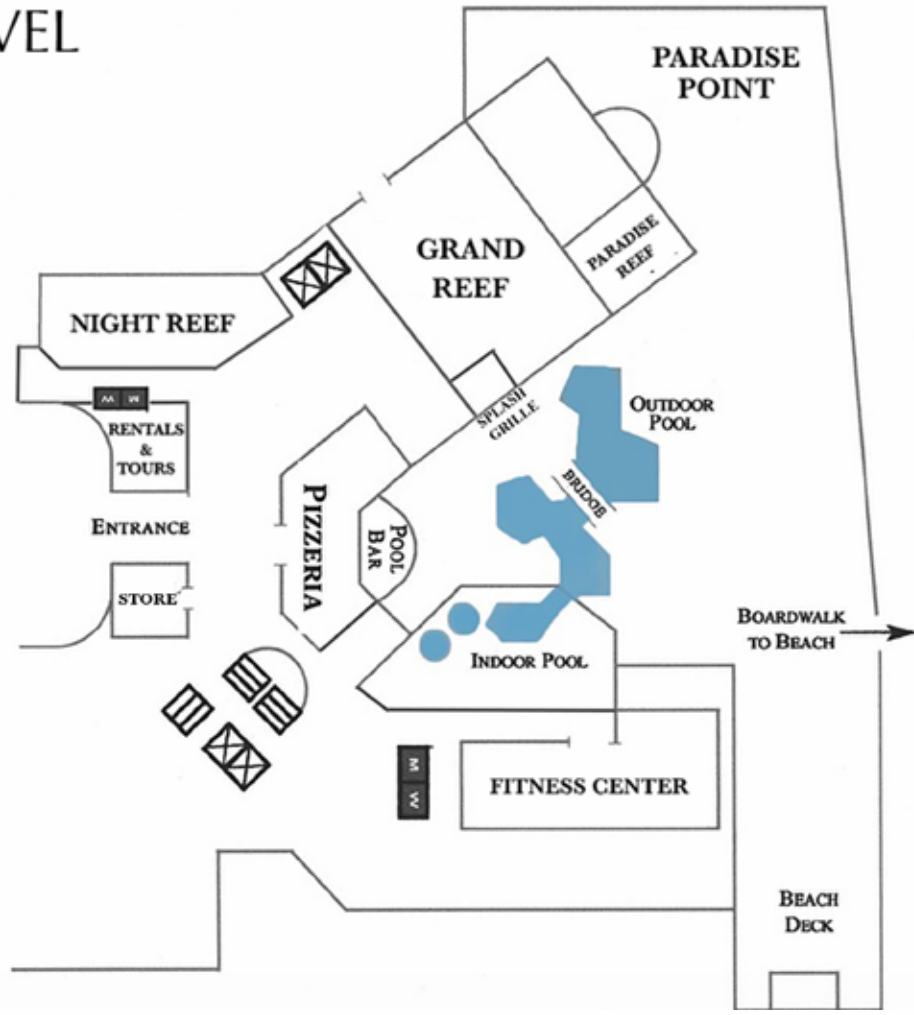

Wild Native Kayaking
wildnativetours.com
240 E 24th Street
Gulf Shores, AL 36542
(251) 272-4088

Wild Native Tours offer several ways to experience Gulf Shore's waterways. The most up-close-and-personal is kayaking, where you can paddle your way through the Gulf's scenic riverways. The Bon Secour River is home to fantastic bird sighting areas, and travelers often see groups of dolphins and manatees. Wild Native also offers boat tours and tours through the delta region on both kayaks and boats.
